STATE REP. KATE HOGAN'S SENIOR NEWS

Massachusetts Sales Tax Holiday Weekend

This month, Massachusetts will once again have a sales tax-free weekend August 10 - 11.

The annual summer shopping tradition goes back many years and began as a way to boost local business.

In 2018, the weekend of relief for shoppers became statutorily-required as part of state legislators' "Grand Bargain" that also raised the minimum wage, created a state paid family and medical leave program, and phased out time-and-a-half pay on Sundays and holidays.

The sales tax holiday for 2024 will be held on Saturday, August 10 and Sunday, August 11. Most retail items of up to $2,500, purchased in Massachusetts for personal use on these two days, will be exempt from collection of the state 6.25% sales tax.

The sales tax holiday applies only to eligible retail items bought online or in-person for personal use by residents. It does not apply to purchases of some specific goods or services, including:

- motor vehicles and motorboats
- meals
- alcoholic beverages, tobacco products and marijuana products
- telecommunications services like prepaid calls
- natural gas, steam, or electricity
- any single item whose price is more than $2,500

All businesses that normally make taxable sales of tangible property in Massachusetts or to purchasers in Massachusetts and are open for business on August 10 and 11 must take part in the sales tax holiday.

If you were charged tax in error, the business that you bought your item from is responsible for giving you a refund of the tax you paid. To determine the amount of your refund, you should provide the business with proof of purchase.

Additional questions are answered on the Massachusetts Department of Revenue webpage at: <https://www.mass.gov/info-details/sales-tax-holiday-frequently-asked-questions>

SMOC update

We have noticed that SMOC is still processing some applications and appeals from the previous heating season of 2023-2024. If you have NOT heard back from SMOC at this point, please let us know so we can follow up accordingly. We have also been informed that there is somewhat of a delay in payments being posted and showing on accounts for those with gas heat. This does not apply for those with electric and oil. Please be advised that we have not yet been given the income guidelines for this upcoming season of 2024-2025. This will be posted in a future newsletter once this information has been made available to us. For applicants that are reapplying for this heating season, be on the lookout as they should start to send out your recertification applications in the coming months. If you would like assistance in completing these applications once you receive them, you can contact the Hudson Senior Center at 978-568-9638 and schedule an appointment with Ana, Holly or Janice. We will update you if there are any changes. Please be advised that as a NEW applicant, the heating season does not begin until November, and applications to apply for the first time are not available until closer to that time. There is NO age limit on this program, anyone can apply for this whether they are a senior or not.

Farmer's Market Coupons

We still have a very limited amount of farmer's market coupons available. These can be used with participating farmers at approved Massachusetts Farmer's Markets, to purchase fruits, vegetables, fresh cut herbs and honey. These are $50 booklets that can be used through October 31. These coupons cannot be used at the grocery store. Income guidelines do apply. Please contact Ana or Holly for eligibility and availability of coupons.

HomeCare

If you are interested in learning more about homecare services and possible assistance you could be eligible for, call to schedule an appointment at the Hudson Senior Center. Help can be acquired by privately paying for services, or you can obtain homecare services through an organization if you meet the eligibility requirements. If one was interested in getting services through an ASAP (Aging Service Access Point) the agency that covers the Hudson area is Springwell Elder Services (formerly BayPath). There may be a wait list to get services, so if you are in need, it's a good idea to start the process sooner rather than later as we can't say how long the wait could be. Springwell Elder Services also provides the Elder Nutrition Program, which offers Meals on Wheels to homebound seniors, and they also offer the same meal at the congregate lunch sites. Hudson is a congregate meal site for those that may not be aware, and we offer the meals twice a week on Wednesday and Thursday. If you are interested in getting meals delivered to your home as a homebound senior, there may be eligibility requirements you need to meet. Call the Hudson Senior Center to get more information, or call Springwell Elder Services directly by calling 508-573-7200 and ask to speak to someone in the Information and Referral Dept.
